

Problem description

Kara thinks the security of her house is not good enough and because of that she feels anxious when she thinks about what might be happening at her house when she's not home.

How do we make our solution affordable?

How do we make Kara feel as if her home is secure at all times?

Problem definition

How do we make Kara less anxious about her home security?